

Indiana's Do Not Call List for telemarketing is too restrictive. It does not allow companies to call their past customers. It also does not allow companies to call referrals from past customers. Over half of our business comes from past customers and the referrals that they send us. How can I tell a past customer I can not call their referral that the referral must call us. I will loose and have lost a great deal of business because of this.